Old Colony Planning Council, the regional planning agency for Abington, Avon, Bridgewater, Brockton, East Bridgewater, Easton, Halifax, Hanson, Kingston, Pembroke, Plymouth, Plympton, Stoughton, West Bridgewater and Whitman, is in the process of updating the Regional Transportation Plan.

The Regional Transportation Plan (RTP) helps to determine how federal and state funding will be spent on transportation infrastructure and services in the next 20 years. These events will solicit community initiatives including mobility needs, quality-of-life and environmental issues.

By participating in these workshops, you will be making a statement about the transportation improvements your community needs now and in the future. If you cannot attend the meeting, feel free to visit our website at <http://www.ocpcrpa.org/>, and participate in our survey at:
