The lunches will be $2.00 with a suggested donation to the Friends of the Kingston Council on Aging of $1.00 for next years lunches. Bruce reported Muriel returned $9,000 from the operating budget was returned to the town because it was not used in the past year. Bruce had a report of the new budget for 2010 – 2011. The Finance Committee did a great job for us.

NEW BUSINESS: Barbara Costa brought the Kingston Reporter to the Council on Aging meeting. The Senior Events schedule was wrong. Barbara gave it to Muriel to show her the dates where wrong and it so it should be fixed. It was in the Kingston Reporter. Peg Riordan said she gets the Patriot Ledger and it had the information about the Golf Tournament, the Senior Olympics and the peach cobbler in it. No one seems to know who puts the notices in the newspapers.

See if we could get more Friends of the Kingston Council on Aging to come to the Council on Aging board meetings.
