Anytime Fitness, Jack Breen said we need something from him to show the Board what he is doing to become complaint. His last letter stated that he was using volunteers. Bill Kavol asked if the Board should ask Town Counsel to send him a letter? Jack Breen said, he is taking a chance with his business that if something happens at his club he is in jeopardy of losing his business. Dan Sapir said we have had communication with the other clubs, but not from Anytime Fitness.

Motion: Joe Casna go to Town Counsel with a request for Counsel to provide us with assistance for enforcement, and to send Counsel a letter, from the Board requesting that he send Mr. Pylant a letter.

Second: Jack Breen

Discussion: Dan Sapir we have met with satisfactory results from the other clubs we are getting results from all but one. Send a letter to counsel and give the Board opportunity to review the letter, we are looking for enforcement, we have compliance from other clubs.

Vote 4-0-0, unanimous

Joe Casna said to schedule inspection after September 30, for Kingston Sports Center.

The Health Agent said today she received a call from Jean Landis Nauman, she would like to meet with the Board of Health, and has issues about recycling. The Health Agent had correspondence from last year pertaining to recycling. The Board would like to have Superintendent, Paul Basler attend the Board's next meeting of October 25, 2010.
