APRIL 4, 2009

The Annual Town Meeting was called to order by the Moderator, Frances E. Botelho-Hoeg, at 9:06 a.m., at the Kingston Intermediate School, 65 Second Brook Street, Kingston, Massachusetts. The Moderator welcomed those present and announced there was a quorum of 100 voters present. She led the Town Meeting in reciting the Pledge of Allegiance.

The sworn tellers were Paul L. Armstrong, Paul F. Basler and James C. Judge.

The Moderator then explained the guidelines under which this Town Meeting would be conducted.

Ms. Botelho-Hoeg announced this was her last opportunity to sit as Moderator since she was not running for re-election. She was elected in 1999; and it has been a pleasure and joy to sit as Moderator and share what she believes is the purest form of democracy. She relayed her special memories of the largest town meeting and the most heated town meeting. She proudly indicated her firsts - the first woman to serve as Moderator, the first town meeting in which children were allowed, and the first town meetings to use the CART system.

Ms. Botelho-Hoeg then personally thanked: Town Clerk Mary Lou Murzyn, Shelley Loring, Mary Leone and the team of people who work the town meetings; the Board of Selectmen; PAC-TV; the tellers; John Creed, who served as Assistant Moderator on several occasions; Bob Pinato and his friends; Town Counsel; and the voters who come and make this a memorable experience. She went on to remember the special folk of town meeting: Mauro Mazzilli, June Ballinger, Benny MacFarlane, Dan Sapir, Pine duBois, Mrs. (Anna) Fiore, Ralph Calderaro, Olly deMacedo, Tom O'Brien and Tom Calter.

Her final wish was that "people realize the importance of this meeting - one person, one vote - where people can speak their mind. It is the people's meeting."

The town meeting body responded with a warm round of applause.

Paul M. Gallagher, Chairman of the Board of Selectmen, presented Ms. Botelho-Hoeg with, a plaque recognizing her service to the community as well as her ten years as Moderator, and a lovely bouquet of flowers. He thanked both her and her husband, Walter, for their joint commitment to the Town of Kingston.

Next, Representative Thomas J. Calter, III, presented Ms. Botelho-Hoeg with a citation from the House of Representatives. He fondly referred to her as the "Equal Opportunity Enforcer."

The town meeting body thanked "Fran" with a standing ovation.

Mr. Gallagher then introduced Jill Myers as Kingston's new Town Administrator, commencing April 27th. He also acknowledged and thanked the members of the search committee: Elaine Fiore, Jason Lelio, Olly deMacedo and Sandra MacFarlane. Mr. Gallagher acknowledged and thanked John "Jack" Healey, interim Town Administrator as well as Nancy Howlett and Town Clerk Mary Lou Murzyn for their efforts in preparing for this town meeting, and introduced Jay Talerman, as new Town Counsel.

At 9:26 a.m., the Moderator suspended the Annual Town Meeting and proceeded to open the Special Town Meeting, which had been called for 9:00 a.m. The Annual Town Meeting resumed business at 9:35 a.m. The Moderator stated that it was obvious that proper notice had been given and the reading of the warrant was waived.

On the motion of Paul M. Gallagher, VOTED that the following non-residents and non-registered residents be allowed to enter and address the Town Meeting:

Jason R. Talerman, Town Counsel
John F. Healey, Interim Town Administrator
